

Alderman Michael McMillan Alderman of the 19th Ward, recently organized a luncheon to salute Women In Leadership for Mother's Day. The event was held at the beautiful Coronado Ballroom, under the guidance of Rob Schaeffer of Steven Becker Fine Dining. Women from business, healthcare, education, social services, civic affairs, government and other arenas were thanked for their hard work and dedication to the community. Alderman McMillan said, "All these women have dedicated themselves to many causes in our city and deserve to be recognized for helping others." All photos by Carl Bruce.

Ida Goodwin Woolfolk, who was MC of the women's luncheon, is seen with Alderman McMillan and Amy Gill of Restoration St. Louis, pause for a photo.
